Precision LM to support sophisticated $2.4 billion loan servicing portfolio

WINDSOR, Conn., Oct. 26, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- SS&C Technologies Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: SSNC) today announced Precision LM will support A10 Capital's sophisticated US $2.4 billion loan servicing portfolio comprised primarily of real estate loans.

A10 Capital is a primary and special servicer specializing in originating and servicing commercial real estate loans, such as direct bridge loans with complex funding structures and long-term permanent loans. A10 adopted SS&C's Precision LM as its direct lending, loan servicing and asset management platform to address unique business needs and improve the borrower experience. The commercial real estate lender is currently underway with SS&C's robust implementation process, which focuses on maintaining existing client day-to-day business flows while maximizing returns and streamlining business processes.

"SS&C has demonstrated its commitment to A10 by providing implementation expertise to integrate its leading Precision LM solution," said Jamie Berenger, Chief Operating and Credit Officer of A10 Capital. "Innovative technology is paramount for A10 to provide the best service to our borrowers with easy-to-navigate portals and enhanced workflow efficiencies."

SS&C Precision LM's loan management platform provides an all-in-one, integrated origination, servicing and asset management, investor accounting and reporting, and borrower self-service for complete loan lifecycle management.

"SS&C is thrilled to have A10 Capital in our growing list of valued clients. We are committed to delivering for all clients from the moment of initial contact through the entirety of the partnership," said Stan Szczepanik, Vice President of SS&C Technologies. "As an independent technology company focused on innovation, SS&C understands our client's unique challenges and provides a tailored solution with Precision LM."
